Discord too?!?

I joined the discord for the January 6th rally that was posted here yesterday. Simply asked for some info and talked about meeting some people local to go with. Just went to log in and I'm banned for TOS violations! I used Discord for a bunch of other stuff and now I'm screwed. Anybody else?

3 It was. Pedes tried to tell you discord was compromised but the stupid part about the up/down vote system is the idiots called us haters and silenced us. You might be getting doxxed, and watch your email for phishy shit.

Gotta be honest. I kinda reached my tech limit joining discord in the first place.... on the discord I saw instructions on how to find them again if this happened and thought I screenshot it but appears I didn't. I could use some help getting to them cuz I was trying to find some people to go to DC with since I'm new to my city.....
